TCNJ Class of 2018

First Year Out Survey Report

July 24, 2019

Dear Members of the TCNJ Campus Community:

The following is a report detailing the post-graduation activity of the Class of 2018. Individuals who completed a degree in August 2017, December 2017 and May 2018 were contacted to complete the survey through email, LinkedIn, and Facebook. Data was available for 1,073/1,564 (68.6%) of Class of 2018 graduates. In an effort to respond to declining response rates, the Department of Career & Leadership Development incorporated data obtained through immediate response surveys from the School of Business, the School of Engineering, the School of Arts & Communication, data from the Admissions Clearinghouse, and from professional online sites such as LinkedIn and G Plus.

Some interesting outcomes involve:
- As a result of the information obtained, graduate and employment information was available for 1,073 graduates. 98.5% (1,057/1,073) were employed full-time or part-time and/or attending graduate/professional school. 1.5% (16/1,073) were not working or attending graduate/professional school.
  - Attending graduate school: 273/1,073 (25.4%)
    - Graduate school only: 151/1,073 (14.1%)
    - Employed and attending graduate school: 122/1,073 (11.36%)
  - Full time: 805/1,073 (75.0%)
    - Full time only: 744/1,073 (69.3%)
    - Full time and attending graduate school: 61/1,073 (5.7%)
  - Part time: 101/1,073 (9.4%)
    - Part time only: 40/1,073 (3.7%)
    - Part time and attending graduate school: 61/1,073 (5.7%)
  - Truly Unemployed: 16/1,073 (1.5%)
- Beyond TCNJ, the top graduate schools students are attending are Rutgers University, New York University, Rowan University, and Columbia University
- The top employers included Penn Medicine Health, PwC, Capital Health, Johnson & Johnson, JP Morgan Chase & Co., Bank of America, Hamilton Township School District, West Windsor/Plainsboro School District, Bloomberg, AT&T, and Lockheed Martin.
- The average starting salary for college graduates remains flat for 2018 graduates, with the Hay Group reporting an average starting salary of $50,390, up 2.8 percent from $49,000 in 2017. The National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) reported similar findings, citing an overall average salary of $50,944 for the Class of 2018, a 0.8% increase from 2017. The average salary for TCNJ's Class of 2018 graduates was $57,500, which is 14.1% above the starting salary reported by the Hay Group, 12.9% above the starting salary reported by NACE, and 2.3% above the starting salary for TCNJ's Class of 2017. There was a statistically significant difference in overall salary between males ($60,700) and females ($55,150).
- While attending TCNJ, 73.3% (562/767) reported having at least one internship with 49.3% (378/767) participating in an internship for 2 or more semesters.

To provide you with a full picture of what has happened to our graduates, information has been further analyzed overall and by school. Data includes employment, graduate/professional school, and salary.

Special thanks go to the academic departments, Center of Institutional Effectiveness, Ms. Melissa Albert (PhD student in Industrial/Organizational Psychology at Bowling Green State University; TCNJ Psychology Department Graduate; College Enhancement Intern), and Vanessa Rutigliano (TCNJ Class of 2020; Psychology major with minors in Management and English; College Enhancement Intern) for their contribution to this process. It is through collaborative efforts that we are all able to achieve our greatest successes.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact the Department of Career & Leadership Development at x 2161 or career@tcnj.edu.

Sincerely,

Debra K. Kelly
