Class of 2010 - School of Humanities & Social Sciences

A total of 406 Humanities & Social Sciences graduates were awarded baccalaureate degrees in August 2009, December 2009, and May 2010. 154 (38%) graduates responded to the Career Center survey. In an effort to increase the accuracy of our post-graduation activity data, The Career Center gathered information through immediate response surveys from the School of Business, the School of Engineering and the Center for Institutional Effectiveness, as well as data from the Admissions Clearinghouse, which resulted in our learning the post-graduation activities of a total of 236 (58%) School of Humanities & Social Sciences graduates.

POST GRADUATION ACTIVITY

Further Study

A total of 67 (45%) of those who responded indicated that they attended graduate school immediately after graduation. This reflects a 4 percentage point increase in comparison to the Class of 2009. However, through the use of the Admissions Clearinghouse we know 144 (35% including respondents and non-respondents) of the entire class pursued further study since graduation.

Employment

155 (95%) respondents indicated they were either working and/or attending graduate school in the first year after graduation.

A total of 129 (79%) graduates indicated they are employed. Their employment status is as follows:

82 (50%) indicated they were employed full time

47 (29%) indicated they were employed part time

43 (26%) indicated they were employed and in graduate school.

24 (15%) indicated they were unemployed, but were attending graduate school.

8 (5%) indicated they were both unemployed and not attending graduate school.

Average Salaries

59 (72%) respondents who were employed full time provided salary information.

All salary information is calculated using the actual salary the respondent provided or the median of the salary range selected by the respondent. Respondents that indicated their salaries fell below $19,999 or above $80,000 and did not include a precise amount were excluded from the calculations.

The mean reported salary for the respondents that met the above criteria is $40,212. This reflects a 7% increase in comparison to the Class of 2009.
